2. Eminent Domain (§§ 317, 323*)—Rights Acquired—Abandonment—Riparian Rights.—Acts 1840-41, c. 91, chartered the North River Navigation Company, to render navigable the waters of North river by a system of dams, locks, and canals. For many years the river was successfully navigated. Complainant in 1906 acquired the land on the west bank of the river opposite dam No. 6, and disputed the title of the navigation company and its successors to the exclusive use of the water at that dam, alleging that any right originally acquired had been abandoned. The bill, however, attached an advertisement of the sale of the land subsequently acquired by complainant, which showed that the water rights had been condemned by the navigation company. Held, that the condemnation of such water rights vested the fee-simple title thereto in the navigation company as against the riparian owners, which rights were not lost by the abandonment of navigation, and hence plaintiff was not entitled thereto as against the company's grantees.

[Ed. Note.—For other cases, see Eminent Domain, Cent. Dig. §§ 836, 860; Dec. Dig. §§ 317, 323.* 5 Va.-W. Va. Enc. Dig. 114.]
